REVIEW THE EMPLOYER DIRECTORY

Take some time to review the directory on the next pages to identify the employers you’d like to meet with today.

VISIT THE LINKEDIN PHOTO BOOTH

Take advantage of our LinkedIn Photo Booth and get a new professional headshot for your online profiles. Key helpful hints for developing your profile can be found below!

1. Choose the right PROFESSIONAL profile picture for LinkedIn.
2. Make your headline more than just a job title.
3. Turn your summary into your story.
4. Grow your network.
5. List your relevant skills.
6. Spotlight the skills you offer.
7. Showcase your passion for learning.
8. Share relevant content from your LinkedIn feed.

KNOW WHAT TO SAY

¶ Prepare a brief verbal summary of your background, achievements, and career interests to make a strong first impression.
¶ Be prepared to talk about what you have to offer and what you want to do.
¶ After introducing yourself to the employer, have some questions prepared to ask the representative. Here are a few sample questions you could ask:
  • What kinds of skills and experience do you look for in the employees you hire?
  • What advice would you give someone starting out in this field?
  • What are the next steps in the hiring process?
¶ As you leave each employer, request the representative’s business card or contact information, learn what happens next in the hiring process and ask what, if anything, you should do to advance your candidacy.

NEXT STEPS

Follow up with the employers you spoke with at the fair with a quick thank you note/email within 24 hours of the event. If an employer directed you to apply on their website (many employers are legally obliged to require this step), it’s important to do so, as employers will be keeping an eye out for your application.

NOW HIRING INTERNS FOR SUMMER 2024

At Pella, people truly care about the little extras, are empowered to share their voices and push beyond the ordinary. We believe we’re in this together and are part of something bigger than ourselves.

INTERNS AND CO-OPS AT PELLA

At Pella, we believe intern and co-op experiences should be meaningful. That’s why they work on projects that have real impact on the business that also position them for success.

Our internship and co-op programs focus on leadership and professional development, support community involvement and offer competitive pay. Many full-time Pella team members started as interns and co-ops.
